

BBC Proms

EVENTS FOR FAMILIES AT THE ROYAL ALBERT HALL
THIS SUMMER

TEN PIECES

PRESENTS ...
SIR HENRY'S
MAGNIFICENT MUSICAL INSPIRATIONS!

SUNDAY 29 JULY

PLUS, LOADS OF OTHER WAYS TO GET INVOLVED

bbc.co.uk/proms

18s AND
UNDER GO HALF PRICE

From special performances in the Royal Albert Hall to your chance to join a Scratch Orchestra and Chorus, there are lots of ways for families to get involved at the BBC Proms.

CONCERTS, WORKSHOPS AND FILMS, INCLUDING:

Ten Pieces Presents ...

Sir Henry's Magnificent Musical Inspirations!

Join the founder of the Proms to discover how nature, history, literature and art have all inspired composers.

23 July, 2.00pm & 6.00pm

Relaxed Prom

A concert with a laid-back atmosphere suitable for children and adults with autism, sensory and communication impairments.

29 July, 12.00pm

Swing No End

From stomps and shuffles to boogie-woogie and blues, from bebop to Latin, Clare Teal presents a slice of musical action from the 1930s and 1940s.

27 August, 3.00pm

PROMS EXTRA

A series of FREE introductory events designed to give the whole family a fascinating insight to the music and artists of the BBC Proms.

Ages 7-plus are welcome – book early before our sessions fill up!

Family Workshops

16 July, 28 July, 17 August, 27 August, 3 September

Family Orchestra and Chorus

12 August, 16 August

Find out more and book at bbc.co.uk/proms

BBC
RADIO

BBC
MUSIC